Tues, Sept 10 11:00 AM	Introduction to The Family History Guide The Family History Guide website ( www.thefhgguide.com ) is a valuable tool for beginners and all researchers . The scope is broad, but its focus is narrow enough to help you step by step. Come and learn how to use this website, which has been approved as a training resource for FamilySearch.	Bob Taylor
Tues, Sept 10 7:00 pm OR Wed, Sept 11 11:00 AM	Fitting Family History into Your Life Have you ever thought, "I would love to do family history, but I just can't seem to find the time!" Here is a great opportunity to learn how.	Janet Helland
Thrs, Sept 12 7:00 PM	Introduction to The Family History Guide	Bob Taylor
Tues, Sept 17 11:00 AM	Journaling Your Life Your family history begins with you. What will you pass on to your family and ancestors? Come and learn easy and effective ways to use journals and journal writing to record and share your life story.	Shelly Adam
Tues, Sept 17 7:00 PM	Computer Basics If you're new to computers (running Microsoft Windows), this is the class for you. (Please Note: Mac computers will not be discussed in this class.) Learn: how to use the mouse, how to use the keyboard, how to use a flash drive, what is a flash drive, what is a USB, what does it mean to scroll up or down, how to safely exit what you are doing, what is Google, how to use Google, what is Gmail, how to set up a Gmail account, what if I get lost and can't find what I need, what if I delete something, what is undo?	Debbie Brady
Wed, Sept 18 11:00 AM	FamilySearch Basics This is a beginning class that will help you get comfortable with navigating your family tree in FamilySearch.	Gail Martinez
Thrs, Sept 19 7:00 PM	No Class Held Tonight (Center will close at 5:00pm for Consultant Appreciation Dinner)
Tues, Sept 24 11:00 AM	FamilySearch Basics	Gail Martinez
Tues, Sept 24 7:00 PM	Identifying Unidentified Photos "Is that my grandfather? When was that photo taken?" When it comes to identifying people and places in photos, we could all use some help. Learn how to identify key facts from photos, and maybe discover some hidden treasures as well.	Larry Malloy
